Pacific Encore Performances said thank you and gave tribute to Jacques Exclusive Caterers (located in Middletown) for its many years of contribution to their community at their V.I.P. Garden Party on July 24th.

Steve Mamola, owner, accepted the award. Pacific Encore Performances is a unique musical repertory company based in New York City and Monmouth County, Originating in Sydney, Australia in 1993 and transplanted to America in 1999, it performs benefit concerts to raise critical funds for other non-profit organizations and participate in cultural and educational collaborations. Monies raised at their "Musicales" fund five outreach programs throughout the year.

The troupe delighted all the music lovers present with its new "Broadway Revue," featuring repertoire from Les Miserables, Cats, and Carousel, and didn't leave a dry eye in Jacques's Grand Hall. The official revue will premiere on Saturday, October 25th at the Axelrod Performing Arts Center in Deal. ●
